

Non-Public & In-Home Events

Insurance & Risk Management | Alumni Association of the University of Michigan

The Association does not provide coverage for events held in a non-public place, such as a private home. For in-home events, the Association recommends that the homeowner purchase a one-time policy for such event (at his/her own expense) to limit the potential for personal liability.